

stoba is an innovative developer of high-precision technology applications, a technology partner for the industrialization of hybrid applications and special high-end solutions in mechanical engineering. The group of companies consists of stoba Customized Machinery, stoba e-Systems and stoba Precision Technology and has subsidiaries in Germany, the UK, China, the USA and the Czech Republic. From consulting, planning and project planning, through development and design, to assembly and commissioning with service and maintenance facilities, stoba offers quality, innovation and customer proximity. With this extraordinary diversity of our competencies, we stand for collegial, sustainable and development-open workplaces with a global perspective and a corporate culture that is characterized by values such as commitment, trust and a constant willingness to change. The professional and forward-looking training of young colleagues is very important to us.

Job description

Machine and plant operator (m/f/d)

2 years

Vocational training must cover at least the following qualifications:

1. Vocational training, labor and collective bargaining law
2. Structure and the training company
3. Health and safety at work
4. Environmental protection
5. Allocating and handling materials, supplies and auxiliary materials
6. Operational and technical communication
7. Planning and preparing work processes
8. Check
9. Industry-specific production techniques
10. Control and regulation technology
11. Setting up and operating production systems
12. Controlling the material flow
13. Maintaining and inspecting machines and systems
14. Implementation of quality assurance measures

The qualifications are to be taught with a focus on metal and plastics technology.

Markus Gebhardt

Contact for stoba Precision Technology

ausbildung.backnang@stoba.one

Phone +49 7191 806-448

stoba Präzisionstechnik GmbH & Co KG

Lange Äcker 8

71522 Backnang

www.stoba.one/pt/